Instruction regarding printing of ballot papers for Deori Autonomous Council (DAC) and Thengal Kachari Autonomous Council (TKAC) Election (2016).

Sir

With reference to the above, I am directed to say that the Ballot Papers for different constituencies of both the DAC and TKAC Election (2016) will be printed locally by the respective DCs and SDO(C)s in fulfillment of the instructions contained in the Annexure enclosed.

This has the approval of State Election Commissioner, Assam.

Yours faithfully

Encl: As stated above.

Secretary

Assam State Election Commission

Dispur ::: Guwahati-6.

Instruction on printing of ballot papers for DAC and TKAC Election (2016)

1) Every ballot paper shall have a counterfoil attached there to and shall be in Form 13 of Appendix-II under Rule 44(1) of the respective Autonomous Council Election Rules.

Quality of papers for Ballot Papers should be good.

- 2) The ballot papers shall be serially numbered.
- 3) The colour of the ballot paper will be white and that of the Postal Ballot Paper will be pink.
- 4) The names of the contesting candidates shall be arranged on the ballot paper in the same order in which their names appear in the list of contesting candidates prepared and published under Rule 27 of respective Autonomous Council Election Rules and shall be printed in Assamese script.
- 5) If the number of contesting candidates exceeds 8 (eight) then the ballot paper shall be printed on double side of the same page. Samples of Ballot Papers in both cases (i.e. less than 8 and more than 8 candidates) are enclosed.

However, if no. of contesting candidates is less than 8 (eight) size of the ballot paper, accordingly be reduced.

- 6) The names of the candidates shall be separated from each other by a panel of thick black line.
- 7) Not to engage more than 1(one) printing presses for printing of ballot papers.
- 8) Printing Presses having relation /connection with political parties or candidates are to be avoided.
- 9) During printing of the ballot papers, entry to the Printing Presses, where Ballot Paper is printed, shall be restricted.
- 10) Every care should be taken that not a single piece of ballot paper including any damaged or mutilated can be taken outside.
- 11) The movement of the public should be made restricted and only authorised person by DCs/SDO(C)s and Assam State Election Commission with proper identity may be allowed to enter to the areas in the press where printing of ballot paper will be taken up. A movement register should be maintained in the entry gate of the Press.
- 12) During the time of printing, the Press should be guarded by armed police forces. Local police authority may be contacted for armed police picket intimating them the date and hours during which printing will be done.
